Welcome!

Falls of Dochart

We are on the road again! With the opening of borders and businesses across the country we are pleased to be back making your holiday dreams a reality. It has been a very challenging time and we want to thank you all for your support over the last few months and are very pleased to still be able to offer you exciting, interesting, relaxing and enjoyable holidays, continuing our Jones tradition of safe, secure and comfortable coach holidays.

We are delighted to bring you our new brochure. We have been working hard behind the scenes to bring you new and creative holidays and of course some old favourites that we hope you will enjoy.

So, our brochure includes all our Autumn Winter collection along with Spring 2022. We hope you find a holiday of interest and very much look forward to seeing you travelling with us soon.

Now, before you start turn the pages to find your perfect holiday, we wanted to let you know about our safety measures that we have put in place for you. These include, less seating on the coach to allow for social distancing, air purifying units fitted to all vehicles, anti-bacterial hand wash stations fitted to all coaches, and face masks being made available for all passengers. We are also adopting a passenger declaration system, like those you'd find for a cruise ship, so passengers can declare to us on the first day of travel that they are well. More information is available about all our safety measures on our website.

So now's your chance to start your adventure, just one final thing, we know that our exclusive door to door pick-up service is very important to our passengers, and this will of course continue as a free service on all holidays of 4 days or more, for our short breaks of 3 days if you would like a home pick-up there is a small surcharge depending on where you live.

Once again, we would like to thank you for your support, and let's now get back to having some fun.

Assuring you of our continued support at all times; it's a great pleasure to have you join us on our holidays and short breaks, and we look forward to enjoying your company in the future.

LLANDUDNO AUTUMN BREAK

FROM
£459

Based in Llandudno, your Autumn break includes magical Portmeirion, the historical town of Beaumaris and the beautiful Isle of Anglesey.

HOLIDAY HIGHLIGHTS

Caernarfon | Porthmadog | Beddgelert | Portmeirion | Halen Mon

DAY ONE - Arrival

We depart from your home with our exclusive home pick-up service and travel to Llandudno, arriving at your hotel with plenty of time to relax and enjoy the town before dinner this evening.

DAY TWO - Caernarfon & Porthmadog

This morning we travel to Caernarfon. Caernarfon is home to Wales' most famous castle and an UNESCO World Heritage Site. Mighty Caernarfon Castle commands the lion's share of attention, but the town's narrow streets and stylishly redeveloped waterfront also merit a visit. We'll then travel to the harbour town of Porthmadog, situated on the Glaslyn Estuary, Porthmadog is rich in maritime history, and has a number of craft shops and restaurants. The town was named after W.A. Maddocks whose ambitious "Cob" embankment scheme led to the town's name, which translates as "Madog's Port". In times gone by, it was a truly busy shipping port for the international slate trade, brought down from Blaenau Ffestiniog. Return to our hotel with time to relax before dinner this evening.

DAY THREE - Portmeirion & Beddgelert

This morning we will visit Portmeirion with its architectural heritage, its stunning setting and sub-tropical gardens. Portmeirion was created by Welsh architect Clough Williams-Ellis from 1925 to 1976 to show how a naturally beautiful site could be developed without spoiling it. Recreating an Italian village, with a truly Mediterranean feel, Portmeirion was also the backdrop for the 1960s TV series 'The Prisoner'.

Later this afternoon we will head to Beddgelert in the heart of Snowdonia. A short walk south of the village, following the footpath along the banks of the Glaslyn leads to Beddgelert's most famous historical feature; 'Gelert's Grave'. According to legend, the stone monument in the field marks the resting place of 'Gelert', the faithful hound of the medieval Welsh Prince Llewelyn the Great. The story, as written on the tombstone reads: "In the 13th century Llewelyn, prince of North Wales, had a palace at Beddgelert. One day he went hunting without Gelert, 'The Faithful Hound', who was unaccountably absent. On Llewelyn's return the truant, stained and smeared with blood, joyfully sprang to meet his master. The prince alarmed hastened to find his son and saw the infant's cot empty, the bedclothes and floor covered with blood. The frantic father plunged his sword into the hound's side, thinking it had killed his heir. The dog's dying yell was answered by a child's cry. Llewelyn searched and discovered his boy unharmed, but nearby lay the body of a mighty wolf which Gelert had slain. The prince filled with remorse is said never to have smiled again. He buried Gelert here".

DAY FOUR - Anglesey & Halen Mon

Today we begin with a visit to Halen Mon (The Anglesey Sea Salt Company), where we enjoy a behind the scenes tour where we learn about the history and importance of Sea Salt to the region.

After a scenic drive around the coast of Anglesey taking in the breathtaking scenery and pretty villages on our travels, we'll return to Llandudno this afternoon with time to relax before dinner this evening.

DAY FIVE - Llandudno

A day at leisure in Llandudno. You will receive complementary tickets for the Great Orme Marine Drive Vintage Tour and the Open Top City Sightseeing Hop on Hop off bus, so there's lots for you to see and do.

ENGLAND SOUTH & SOUTH COAST

The South of England covers an array of contrasting landscapes. Walk along the beautiful Bournemouth coastline, delicate a day to Dorchester. There's a tour to suit each member of the party in Southern England. We may be biased, but the coast is just as good (if not better) than the shores abroad. Avoid Brexit worries and hefty travel fees by exploring the uncovered mysteries of southwest England.

Travel by coach, rail and/or ride the boat cruise on a day trip to the Isles. Alternatively, take a look at the marvellous seaside resorts of Weymouth, Sidmouth and everyone's favourite Lyme-Regis.

Experience the magic of Bicton Park Botanical Gardens, with its historic glasshouses and excellent Countryside Museum all set in 60 acres of finery. Sitting adjacent to Torquay, yet enjoying its own independence, is delightful Babbacombe, home to its famous Model Village.

If spectacular views are your thing, we recommend the Isle of Wight, a place of outstanding natural beauty. Marvel at the panoramic views of The Needles, Alum Bay and Cowes. After a day of exploring, relax and unwind in a unique hotel fit for royalty. Indeed, Queen Victoria's cherished residence, Osborne House, features on this tour which tops off a truly unmissable trip.

ENGLAND SOUTH WEST

Despite being off the beaten track, Southwest England offers enchanting landscapes saturated in magical colours, flowers and wildlife. Therefore, we plead you see it with your own eyes. Whether you travel through Dorset, Devon or Cornwall, each destination has its charming character and friendly, welcoming locals. The west country boasts picture-perfect scenes in remote places of tranquillity.

Enjoy a breath of fresh air over at the Cornish coast. Step off your doorstep and onto the fishing ports, a unique and picture-worthy place for lunch. Travel onwards to Fowey for adventures on and off the water. The southwest coast also caters to period drama lovers. Familiar scenes shot in Charlestown will resonate with fans of Poldark and Mansfield Park. The tour pauses in the historic town then continues on through the fishing village of Mevagissey.

From day one each holiday goer will experience a taste of quintessentially British food and drink. Dive into Devon, where cream tea and scones are taken very seriously. Spend time in Port Isaac, where several the locals are also extras in the TV series Doc Martin.

If it's fun you're after, take a trip to the Babbacombe and the English Riviera. The southwest climate rivals any holiday destination. Adjacent to Babbacombe, Torquay provides an alternative backdrop for a perfect holiday. The busy harbour and sandy beaches are thriving at every hour of the day.
